DISEASE GERMS ALWAYS ABOUT

Must Defend Against Them With Weapons Science Has Given Us

TO PREVENT DISEASE

Clean Life, Careful Observance Laws of Hygine Affords Armor That is Almost Invulnerable.

There is no royal road to health. Eternal vigilance, not only is the price of liberty but also the price of health. We are at all times surrounded by invisible, though none the less deadly enemies, in the form of disease germs or bacteria, as we call them. These organisms are simply single-celled microscopic plants, the smallest form of plant life we know of. So minute are they, that it is only by magnifying them a million or more times, we are able to see them at all. Not all germs are pathogenic, that is, able to cause diseases. It is a good thing for the human race that this is so, otherwise we would not have even a chance. There are many thousand kinds of bacteria found in the air, water and earth and in the blood, secretions and juices of all forms of animal and plant life. No life could exist without their aid. It is, however, only with such of the forms that cause disease that will be dealt with here.

If it were possible for the human race to scatter and each individual go away off and live entirely alone, the germs causing typhoid fever, tuberculosis, pneumonia, diphtheria, syphilis and other communicable diseases, would soon die out. But as we cannot do that, we must defend ourselves the best we can with the weapons science has provided, and which experience has proved effective. How little thought we give to the care of our own bodies. The man with a "tin lizzy" will spend a good portion of his time trying to learn just how the thing works. He will strain his gasoline, and use only the best quality of lubricating oil; he will soon become able to talk glibly about the carborretor, magneto, universal joint and differential. But just ask him to tell something about the construction and functions of his own body, and its principal organs and what will he say? As man will stuff anything that looks like food into his interior, and drink old soy thing that looks like liquid—more particularly if he thinks it has a kick—and go on his way rejoicing, at least until some organ gives way under the abuse, then he wonders what could possibly cause the trouble, and is firmly convinced that he is living in a hard cruel world and has never been given a fair deal. He is very particular about the breeding and care of his horses, cattle hogs and dogs, but if his daughter has the chance to marry a social lion with plenty of money, band legs and a narrow chest, not to mention a constricted intellect; he thinks it is alright, and a fine catch for the girl. Most disease producing germs are able to gain a foothold in the human body, only when its normal vitality is reduced below the safety point from one cause or another. Our normal powers of resistance are in most cases, reduced by our own carelessness in eating and drinking, loss of sleep and general nervous strain incident to modern social and business life, and our personal habits in general. A clean life, the careful observance of the simple laws of sanitation and personal hygiene, affords an armor that is almost invulnerable to the shafts of disease. Never use a common towel, common drinking cup or any article in comon use, that may transmit disease germs, unless it has been thoroughly cleaned since last used. Germs are pased from one individual to another either by direct contact, or indirectly by contaminated articles or infected food or drink. Self preservation is nature's first law. Keep that well in mind. The man who laughs at these things, deceives no body but himself!

FAMILY REUNION.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Brown of Shipman, Va., last week had a family reunion of their children. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brown and daughter, Mrs. Sadie, of Washington, D. C.; Messrs. R. P. and W. H. and Miss Maude Brown, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sublett and son, Herbert, of Alexandria; Misses Ruth and Maria Brown and Charlie D., of Shipman, and Misses Mary and Nellie Carlton of Roanoke.

On Thursday evening a bountiful dinner was served, mother and father and all of their eight children were seated at the table and the familiar family blessing was asked by the father. After dinner an expression was made by both mother and father of each child of their faithfulness, love and ambition. The evening was enjoyed greatly, the children having a challenge game of croquet, the girls, against the boys, the victory yet remains undecided. Several hay rides were taken during the week, and after each of the amusements, water melon feasts were held.

The most exciting and surprising of all was on Saturday morning, August 23, 1919, Miss Mary Carlton and R. Preston, Miss Nellie and W. H. started for a drive on Oak Ridge Farm and instead of going there, they went over to Lovingston, Va., where Miss Mary and R. Preston were married by Rev. C. H. Fielding.

Miss Carlton is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carlton of Roanoke. The bridegroom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Brown, of Shipman, Va. The couple will reside in Alexandria, where the bridegroom is an employee for the Southern Railway.

STRIKE AT THEATRE

Washington Musicians and Stage Hands Obey Orders From New York

The Belasco Theater, Washington, was closed by the stage hands and musicians a few minutes before the evening performance of "Up From Nowhere," began last night. The walkout was arranged at meetings of the local unions during the late afternoon, and was the result of instructions received from the national headquarters of the Musicians' and Stage Hands' Unions, which are aiding the Actors' Equity Association in their fight against the producers.

The Belasco was the only Washington theater closed. The obvious reason for its selection is the fact that it is owned by Sam S. and Lee Shubert, Incorporated, and David Belasco, a firm and a producer who are membes of the Producing Managers' Association of New York The National Theater, which is owned by the Rapley estate; the Shubert-Garrick, which is leased to stock producers, and Poli's, the lease of which is controlled by S. Z. Poli, were unaffected because these owners and lessees are not members of the New York association against which the actors have declared war.

Hall, a prohibition inspector, who is charged with shooting and killing Raymond Shackelford and Lawrence Hudson at Fisher's Hill last March. The case is to come up at Manassas on September 2. The State will bear the entire cost of the trial, for, while a State officer, he is being prosecuted according to the due process of law.

LABOR CRISIS IN THE UNITED STATES

Industrial Peace Depends Upon Results of Government's Campaign.

GOMPERS IN CHARGE

Director-General Hines Takes Drastic Measures—Tells Men if They Strike Jobs Will be Filled.

That industrial peace in the United States will depend upon the results the government shows in the next 90 days in its campaign to reduce the high cost of living, was apparent from developments in the railroad strike situation yesterday.

Director General Hines last night seved notice on "public officers, railroad officers and employes and citizens generally in California, Arizona and Nevada," that the Railroad Administation would undertake to restore full railroad sevice in those States on and after 7 o'clock tomorrow morning, and that all striking employes who do not return to work by that time will find their places filled.

Anyone who interferes with or impedes the use of railroad property, Mr. Hines said, would be dealt with for having committed an offense against the United States.

This action, coming after the announcement by the four brotherhood chiefs that the brotherhood would assist the Railroad Administration in operating the lines if the illegal strike was not terminated is the most drastic ever taken by the Government in a labor controversy.

Mr. Hines in addition sent telegrams to the Governors of California, Nevada and Arizona and to the Mayors of principal cities in those States asking cooperation in maintaining traffic and in preventing interference with the movement of trains.

Samuel Gompers took immediate hold of the restless labor situation on his return to American Federation of Labor headquarters in Washington yesterday from Europe.

Closeted all day with the executive council of the Federation, Mr. Gompers declined to make any statement as to what course would be pursued in dealing with the many problems pressing for attention. In the case of the steel workers, their committee after conferring with Mr. Gompers, made public a letter to Elbert H. Gary of the United States Steel Corporation, notifying him that a strike would be called unless an interview was granted the union representatives within the time limit previously fixed.

Officers of the railway shop unions talked over their wage demands and the administration's compromise offer with the federation president. Representatives of the striking actors in New York also saw Mr. Gompers but no information as to the conference was given out.

POLICE BOARD INVESTIGATE CASE

Policeman C. G. Miller Suspended For Ten Days By Mayor

APPROVED BY BOARD

Floyd S. Shinn Tells Board He Gave Policeman $1 With Which to Purchase Cigars.

Policeman Charles G. Miller last night was suspended by Mayor Fisher for a period of ten days for a violation of the rules regulating the police force following an investigation made by the board of police commissioners at a meeting held in the office of the Mayor. The suspension was made by the Mayor on the recommendation of the commissioners.

Floyd S. Shinn, giving his address as 1917 Duke street, was first called before the board to testify as to what he knew about the case Asked by Mayor Fisher if he had made any charge against a police officer he declared he had not.

After others had testified he was recalled and told the board that the evening of August 20 he was at the upper end of King street when policeman Miller came up and that a woman with witness began crying and he gave Policeman Miller what he thought was $1 as a gift for Miller to purchase cigars for himself. instead of a $1 bill it was a $10 bill. He said that Miller had not even threatened to arrest him, Shinn also declared he had not told anyone about the matter.

James T. Humphrey, 1212 King street, denied having made a charge against any policeman. He said he knew absolutely nothing about the case. The witness, however, admitted having spoke to Sergt. Wilkinson in the street in reference to a report he had heard.

Police Sergt. William J. Wilkinson told of a report of the matter coming to him and of his investigation and subsequently of reporting the matter to Chief of Police Goods.

At the conclusion of the case Policeman Miller, who was present was told he could take the stand if he desired. He did not make any statement to the board letting the matter rest with its members.

MEXICAN SENATE YIELDS

Reports Oil Bill in Line With Foreign Interests' Demands

Mexico City, Aug 29.—The Petroleum Committee of the Mexican Senate presented Wednesday a report on legislation regulating Article 27 of the Constitution of 1917, which nationalizes oil lands, and at the same time laid before the Senate a draft of a law regulating this article and eliminating all retroactive effects of proposed oil legislation. This is a concession for which foreign oil interests have been contending. The proposals submitted by President Carranza last November looking to the regulation of Article 27 are now being considered by the Chamber of Deputies without decisive action as yet.

The Senate committee's draft of the law is based on the President's proposals, but makes important changes in the plan of the Chief Executive. These are embodied in Section 4 of Article 3, which provides that oil lands privately owned or leased shall be nationalized, except "all private properties regarding which there have not been contracts for the exploration and exploitation of the subsoil before May 1, 1917, (the date when the present Constitution became effective) and also those where the owner of the surface has not shown by positive acts before this date that his intention has been to use substances derived from the subsoil."

The trip will occupy 25 days and speeches appealing for the immediate ratification of the peace treaty without change, will be made in the principal cities of the West.

The opening address, Secretary Tumulty said, will be at Columbus Ohio, next Thursday, probably in the evening.

"DRY" BAN TO STAY

Palmer Announces This Will be Policy Regardless of Status of Demobilization

Washington, Aug. 29.—Attorney General Palmer says the nation will remain "dry" under wartime prohibition until the treaty of peace is ratified and peace formally proclaimed by the President, no matter what may be the status of demobilization prior to final action on the treaty by the Senate. The "wets," who had hoped that the war time prohibition ban would be lifted at an early date, he said, might just as well give up hope, unless the Senate ratifies the treaty.

THE STRIKE SITUATION

Acceptance of President Wilson's offer of a small wage increase pending the outcome of the Government's efforts to reduce the cost of living was advised by the executive council of the Railway Shops Unions in a letter sent from Washington yesterday to all union locals.

Their letter said if there was to be a strike every class of railway employees should be willing to join in the movement.

"If the Federated Shop Trades strike now," the letter said, "they carry the full burden of securing the same general incease for the 78 per cent of the railroad employees who have not yet decided what action they propose to take. We do not believe that we should allow ourselves to be placed in that position. In our opinion the next 90 days will bring the entire situation to a head and if a strike is to take place every class of railroad employees should be willing to join in the movement. share their full measure of responsibility and not leave the issue to be decided by the 22 per cent of the railroad employees represented by the federated trades.

"It is our honest judgment that a fatal mistake would be made by our members to assume the responsibility of tying up the railroads at this time when the President is evidently doing all possible to reduce the high cost of living. It is but fair to assume that the President will have the loyal support of a majority of the American public in his effort to procure this much needed relief. We would, no doubt, be charged with obstructing his efforts."

Unless members of the four railroad brotherhoods now on strike on the Pacific coast return to work tomorrow morning the brotherhoods will support the Federal Administration in its efforts to operate the Federal controlled railroads, it was announced in Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday.

Reading, Pa., Railway shopmen, over 4000 in number, may accept the offer of President Wilson to pay them 4 cents an hour additional. After a meeting yesterday it was stated that sentiment in that direction was favorable.

A BUTCHER FOR PRESIDENT

The National People's Party of Germany has decided to nominate Marshal von Hindenburg for President.

While the late war was in progress the Germans insisted that God was with them and victory assured, Americans returning from Germany bing souvenirs in the shape of match boxes, etc., all of which bear the Teutonic coat of arms and the words "God with us."

Jehovah would not allow David to build the temple in Jerusalem because he had been a man of war. Now that the Fatherland is at peace with the world one of the most cruel butchers who has ever disgraced the world is about to be made the choice of a strong party in Germany for President.

The echoes from the Masurian swamps are still being heard in blood-soaked Europe. The scenes in connection withe the wanton massacre of captured Russian soldiers while they plead piteously for Hindenburg for mercy will prove the most cruel in history. The only answer to the pleas was "Close up, fire" while the victims were exclaiming "O, Prussians!"

The following lines are appropriate:

Cursed is the man, and void of law and right,
Unworthy property, unworthy
sight,
Unfit for public rule, or private care;
That wretch, that monster, who
delights in war;
Whose lust is murder, and whose horrid joy
To tear his country, and his kind destroy!

FIND 40-YEAR-OLD WHISKY

Harrisburg, Aug. 29.—A bottle of whisky proved to be more than 40 years old by an almanac dated 1878 which was found when it was overturned recently by workingmen who were razing an old house in Cherry street to make way for improvements. The whisky and almanac were imbedded in the foundations. The bottle was not broken in its fall. The foreman measured out small portions of its contents among the lucky workmen.

A man alleged by the police to have sampled whisky substitutes handed out here to returned soldiers butted his head against the walls of a local hospital until the police came. He topped off his performance by drinking he red ink on the desk of the police station.

GOOD NEWS TRAVELS FAST AND FAR

The truth of this is only too plain. We opened our Remodeled Second Floor last Saturday, showing for the first time, the results of our months of worry and work to make this a Beauty Spot. How well good news will carry is better told by stating that we did considerable business with people from Washington.

We never expected to do any business in that city, but the fact that we are doing it every day speaks well for our merchandise.

We have always claimed that we could sell cheaper than Washington stores. That we would carry a stock of which the selection is as good if not better than Washington.

Now the pleasure we have is not because we get business from Washington, but the fact that we have made good our promise by making Alexandria's Best Store, the equal of the best in Washington.

D. BENDHEIM.

LEOPARD CANNOT CHANGE SPOTS

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Tells the Treachery of Calomel.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynimite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel billious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild-cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

Watch the Little Pimples; They are Nature's Warning

Unsightly and Disfiguring Signals of Bad Blood.

Pimples on the face and other parts of the body are warnings from Nature that your blood is sluggish and impoverished. Sometimes they foretell eczema, boils, blisters, and other skin disorders that burn like flames of fire.

They mean that your blood needs S. S. S. to cleanse it of these impure accumulations that can cause unlimited trouble. This remedy is one of the greatest vegetable compounds known, and contains no minerals or chemicals to injure the most delicate skin.

Go to your drug store, and get a bottle of S. S. S. today, get rid of those unsightly, disfiguring pimples, and other skin irritations. It will cleanse your blood thoroughly. For special medical advice free, address Medical Director, 41 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section thirty-two, which is in the following words:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public, and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 32. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-eight, which is in the following words:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion provide for the compulsory education of children between the ages of eight and twelve years, except such as are weak in body or mind, or can read and write, or are attending private schools, or are excused for cause by the district school trustees.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion, provide for the compulsory education of children of school age.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 117 of article 8 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this Constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality.

The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population, but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurer and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 117. (a) General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly: provided, that every such charter is hereby amended to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may, by general law or by special act, (passed in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution) provide for the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to, and unaffected by any of the provisions of this article, except those of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and twenty-five, (except so far as the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five recognize the office of mayor and the power of veto) one hundred and twenty-six one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight of this article and except those mentioned in sub-section (d) of this section. The term "Council" as used in any of said sections shall include the body exercising legislative authority for the city or town, and all ordinances enacted and resolutions adopted by such body shall have the same force and effect for all purposes, as if enacted or adopted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-three of this article. But such organization and government shall apply only to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of those qualified voters of any such city or town voting in an election to be held for the purpose, as may be provided by law.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio, and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 133 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (the majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to section one hundred and thirty-three, article nine, of the Constitution of Virginia, be and is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly at the first regular session held after the next general election of members of the house of delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-three of article nine, which is in the following words:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be not more than three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

Men and women may serve as school trustees in said districts, and in cities and in towns forming separate school districts.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing) That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and eighty-four, which is in the following words:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued, except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to construct, or reconstruct, public roads, to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

A RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 136 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next session of the general assembly.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-six, which is in the following words:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate five mills on the dollar in any one year, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided, that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate in any one year a rate of levy to be fixed by law, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

HIGHWAY BILL IS PASSED

Special Session of Virginia Legislature to Adjourn Soon

Richmond, Va., Aug. 29.—The State Senate late last night passed the highway commission bill by unanimous vote. It empowers the governor to name a commission of five men to have charge of the road improvements in the State.

But few amendments were made to the bill sent over by the House, and indications are the measure will be enacted today and the special session of the legislature adjourn soon thereafter.

In the House yesterday a bill levying an additional 7 cent tax on general property, the proceeds to be used in meeting Federal road aid, was passed, and two measures designed to hit the high cost of living were enacted One provides against monopolies and combinations inimical to public welfare and the other regulating the cold storage of supplies. For the first offense under the bill a fine of $1,000 is provided and a year in jail, while for a second offense the convicted person shall be fined $5,000 and get ten years in prison.

FINES ALSO GOING UP

Richmond, Va., Aug. 29.—Police Justice Cruthfield, known throughout the country as one of the most eccentric judges, yesterday declared the high cost of living has increased to such an extent that he saw no reason why the fines of Police Court "regulars" should not do likewise.

Those who appear morning after morning in Police Court were taken back considerably and stared in wild eyed amazement as the judge was speaking.

THEATRES

INGOMAR THEATRE

Frances Hodgson Burnett, who wrote "The Secret Garden," the new Paramount picture in which Lila Lee is to be seen at the Ingomar Theatre tonight has been one of the most popular of novelists wherever English is spoken, for 30 years. "The Secret Garden" is one of her most popular recent stories. It numbes its readers by the millions and it has been translated into several foreign languages. It is an entrancing story and its success in book form has been more than duplicated on the screen.

Not only is the play vivid, absorbing, compelling—a human document of remarkable fidelity to life life—but Pauline Frederick herself declares that never before has she been enabled so fully to express tragic emotions, nor to be so freely herself with such satisfying results on the screen She is essentially a new Pauline Fredrick

Besides narrating an appealing story which steadily mounts to a tremendous climax, "The Fear Woman' abounds in pictorial beauty. No less than thirty-two superb interior settings are enjoyed in the course of the drama and the star is seen in twenty-three distinct changes of costume. Photographically the play sets a new standard in Goldwyn Pictures; and these merits, coupled with the artistry of a faultless cast, all promise unusual enjoyment to Pauline Frederick's nation wide legion of admirers.

Our Obligation to the Community

During the year 1918 this Company's total revenue in Virginia amounted to $2,765,742. Its operating expenses (not including interest and dividends) were $2,827,378. We thus sustain an actual operating loss of $61,636.

In order to make the revenues more nearly equal expenses, the Postmaster General, while the telephone systems were under Government control, established higher rates. But even the revenue from these higher rates, because of constantly increasing costs, are not sufficient to provide a reasonable return on the investment.

A public utility's obligation is two-fold: first to serve the public and serve it well.. Second, to earn a reasonable return for those who lend it funds to continue operations.

When revenues are insufficient a utility—a public-serving organization of trained men and women—cannot properly fulfill the first obligation and it fails entirely to fulfill the second.

Assuming that the valuation of this Company's property is fair and that our management is economical and efficient, both of which we are prepared to prove, we believe that the public will not deny us the right to earn a reasonable return on our investment.

This is all the Company asks in its petition for higher rates now pending before the State Corporation Commission.
